Notice of Claim Disclaimer

The City of Beacon (the “City”) provides the attached Notice of Claim form as a courtesy to its residents. The City makes no representations as to the suitability of this form for your specific claim. The City disclaims any and all liability for the outcome of any matters brought under the attached Notice of Claim form. Providing this form, does not in any way demonstrate the City’s preference or support for either party in the action commenced using this form. The City is not able to provide any legal advice, guidance or representation in connection with the Notice of Claim form. Should you require legal advice, you must consult with an attorney.

Pursuant to the General Municipal Law §50-e and the City Charter §9.10, to commence an action against a municipality, public officer or public employee, the petitioner must file a Notice of Claim. The Notice of Claim must be served on the municipal government agency within a designated period of time, by personal delivery, or registered or certified mail. Specific time frames must be consulted. Petitioners must consult the General Municipal Law and the City Charter to determine when a Notice of Claim must be filed. Failure to timely file a Notice of Claim and commence the lawsuit may result in dismissal of the case.
